Crowd Sourcing Mediator Ethics

The Ethical “Bermuda Triangle”: Dealing with Attorneys, Parties, and Judges in Mediation

Mediation is something we often do on our own. This program is designed to provide you with a unique opportunity to peer into the mediation sessions of others and gain valuable insights into the many tangled ethical issues that can arise during the course of a mediation. Led by Professor Alexandra Carter (Columbia Law School), this presentation will be an interactive discussion of the ethical quandaries and conundrums faced by EDNY Panel Mediators.
